My dear Dewan Bahadur,

I enclose the petition which I showed you this morning & which I received from the Asst Private Secretary to the Viceroy for advice as to what reply should be sent.

I have told Mr Metcalfe that no action on his part appears to be required & that it will be quietly explained to the issuer of the petition that he went rather beyond the mark in addressing a copy to H.E. It might be pointed out to Mr Gadikal H Narasingha Row that Lord Hardinge has given practical proof of his esteem for the late Mr Gokhale by contributing handsomely to the "Gokhale Memorial" which being organised for all India.

Yours very sincerely

Your generosity and public spirit are proverbial and I hardly feel any hesitation in appealing to you FOR LITTLE HELP and to permit us to include your name in the list of Patrons and Sympathisers.

ANY LITTLE CONTRIBUTION which you will be graciously pleased to send for the support of these Gokhale Institutions, will be thankfully received and we shall feel much honoured and greatly indebted to you.

Sir,

On behalf of the Gokhale Hindu Secondary School, Literary and Free Reading room, and Gokhale's free English Night School, most respectfully and humbly I beg to approach you with the following appeal.

These Literary Institutions have been established solely with the object of perpetuating the memory of Late Shri Gopal Krishna Gokale who devouted his whole life for the education of India, and for imparting English Education freely to the poor Indian boys and day labourers. These Institutions, which have proved so beneficial to the poor inhabitants, are in want of Funds. To fulfil the noble object of these Institutions and to establish them on a permanent footing, it has been resolved to raise Funds to meet the expenditure upon the various and important things and for the erection of a SUITABLE BUILDING. The support and maintenance of the noble cause undertaken for perpetuating the memory of Late Sri Gokhale, principally depend upon the libera-
